CORNER HOUSE LEADERSHIP TEAMS GATHER FOR TEAM BUILDING

The Corner House Spring Benefit returned for 2021! If the last 18 months taught us anything, it's the importance of focusing on the things that matter most. For us, that means our mission and our community. We were thrilled to gather to celebrate both as we presented the Marie L. Matthews Award to Leah McDonald and the inaugural James A. Floyd Community Partner Award to the Princeton Police Department, two of our most respected advocates for healthy living. The evening also featured a presentation from our Corner House Student Board and a video reflecting on the positive impact of Corner House in our community.

OUTREACH STUDENTS ATTEND INDIANA UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA DECISION DAY

It's been a long two years for our students, but their determination has never wavered. They've continued to work, to strive and to achieve their goals. And all of that hard work and dedication paid off in November, when some of our seniors from our Outreach programs travelled to Indiana University of Pennsylvania for their 2021 Decision Day. We are thrilled to share that FOUR of our amazing students were accepted on the spot! We can't wait to see how these superstars will do in the future!

CORNER HOUSE GAIA STUDENTS VISIT LITTLEBROOK ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Our GAIA students are back in-person and hard at work spreading positive messages about peace, peer support, inclusion, and acceptance. GAIA students hosted workshops for the second graders at Littlebrook Elementary school. During the worst of the pandemic, these work shops on bullying-prevention, inclusion, and equity were held via Zoom. Both our students and the Littlebrook students are thrilled to be able to gather together again safely!
