

CORNER HOUSE INTRODUCES NEW OUTREACH COORDINATOR

Corner House welcomes Denise Spivey, Outreach Coordinator

Denise joins the Corner House team as an outreach coordinator, overseeing the World of Work for Youth (WOWY), Princeton Youth Project (PYP) and Advocacy for Youth (AYP) initiatives.

Denise attended Princeton High School and is an alum of the Corner House Outreach program.

Denise graduated from Stockton University with her degree in social work. Previously, she worked in case management at the Mercer County Board of Social Services and brings a focus on social and emotional health to her new role.

"Corner House was such a big part of my high school career and coming back as the coordinator is amazing and surreal."
