

CORNER HOUSE INTRODUCES NEW CLINICAL DIRECTOR

————— ” ———

I am excited to return home to Corner House and my professional roots.

Corner House has always been a pre-eminent, community-based behavioral health center and I am thrilled to be a part of continuing that legacy.

—Terbett Fairman,
M.S., MFT, LCADC

Corner House welcomes new Clinical Director, Terbett Fairman, M.S., MFT, LCADC

Corner House Behavioral Health welcomes (back!) Terbett Fairman, M.S., MFT, LCADC, as the new Clinical Director! Terbett is taking over from Dave Errickson, who was recently promoted to Executive Director.

Terbett previously worked at Corner House as a Clinical Family Therapist, before moving to a supervisory position with another provider. She holds a Bachelor of Science in psychology from North Carolina Central University and a Master of Science in marriage and family therapy from Seton Hall University.

"I am elated to return to Corner House in its Jubilee year. I look forward to being a part of this vibrant community as we continue to innovate and look towards the future."

Terbett brings years of experience and a wealth of knowledge as an accomplished clinician.
